FACILITIES:

All camp activities will be held at Rickwood Field, the oldest major league park in the United States, Rickwood Field was built in 1910, and is being restored as a baseball museum.

CAMP GOALS:

The goal of the Birmingham Baseball Camp is (1) to offer a setting that enables prospective student athletes an opportunity to showcase their individual talents; (2) to provide an environment to learn and improve mechanics and fundamentals in specific baseball skills; and (3) to offer the best quality instruction to ensure a positive baseball experience and prepare each player for their respective levels of competition.

WHAT TO BRING:

- Bat & Batting Gloves
- Clothes for Outside Activities
- Catching Equipment
- Baseball Spikes
- Baseball Glove

* Please make sure your name is placed on all these and other personal items.

PAYMENT PROCEDURE:

Make your check payable to Birmingham Baseball

- Full payment of $150 must accompany your registration form to secure your place in the camp.
- Payment may be made by check, money order, (made out to Birmingham Baseball), or cash.

CANCELLATION POLICY:

A cancellation due to personal injury or a family emergency will allow the player to receive a $75 refund. A $50 charge will be kept to handle administrative fees. To receive a refund under these circumstances the player must provide:

1. a note from the attending physician on the doctor's stationary or;
2. have a parent send a note to explain the nature of the family emergency.

Cancellation for any other reason made 3 weeks prior to your scheduled camp dates will allow a camper to receive a $75 refund. After that time NO refund will be given.
